

NAMI Regular Meeting May 10, 2018

President Mick Fiocchi called the meeting to order at 6:03 p.m.

Those in attendance were: Mick Fiocchi, Mary Wright, Mary Satterlee, Jeanne Pederson, Dan Rondello, Linda Renn, Jim Skubal, Bob Mangles, and Audrey Kissinger. Absent were: Sue Janik, Pat Marquardt, Pam Morton, Ann Zenk, and Maggie Peterson.

Skubal made a motion to approve the minutes, and Pederson seconded. They were approved with the following corrections: Ambrose changed to Lambert, Satterlee has 2 "Ts", and Rawlings should be Rullings.

Renn reported that the Mental Health Summit was well attended. One of the workshops was on cyber bullying.

There were about 30-35 people at bowling according to Skubal.

Skubal mentioned the need for people not to walk in front of the speaker, when we have a speaker.

Satterlee gave the treasury report. She stated that she prefers dues are payed directly to the chapter. We have $9,823.90 in checking. $15,433.45 in savings, and $8,153.32 in The Northern Lakes Drop-In Center Fund.

Upcoming programs will be Dottie Moffat in May.

In July we will have our annual picnic at Hodag Park.

Absences were excused for Sue Janik, Pat Marquardt, Pam Morton, Ann Zenk and Maggie Peterson.

Jeanne Pederson will be absent from the next meeting.

Sharon Lambert will be the speaker in June.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:17 p.m.

Satterlee and Wright reported that the NAMI state conference was quite enjoyable and successful.

Wright suggested speaking to Scott Meyers before putting together a proposal for Knights of Columbus.

Rondello mentioned the possibility of space at the Curran Office Building for our Drop-In Center.

Fiocchi met with Tamara Feest, the executive director of The Human Services Center. Feest suggested paying $10,000 for some budget line items. Fiocchi has a form he will fill out in this regard.

Fiocchi stated the need for having more people on the fundraising committee.

The CIT program has been well attended. Many law enforcement personnel are involved according to Fiocchi.

There is a tentative date for a CIY program in September.

Fiocchi stated that the state 2015 taxes will need to have 2 notarizations.
