Fiocchi spoke about the lack of attendance for our monthly general meetings.

A reminder will be posted at the drop-in center regarding our monthly general meeting, and we will organize phone lists, and try to arrange rides.

Skubal suggested not having a monthly general meeting in April or in the Fall, when we have bowling, and the fall get together. The consensus of the board was that we should do this.

Wright made a motion to start the board meetings at 5:15 pm. Seconded by Janik and approved.

The grand opening for the drop-in center will be held after the gala. Rondello will contact Robyn Dunahoe.

In December we will have our Xmas party, and our speaker for January will be Pearl Fesenden.

On June 22nd we will have a fundraiser from 5 to 8 pm at CT's Deli according to Wright.

Rondello will advertise the gala on the website and on Facebook, as well as The CT's Deli fundraiser.

Satterlee gave the treasury report. She gave a run down of drop-in center expenses and revenue. We have $6,014.53 in checking, $27,481.11 in savings, and $9,373.97 in the drop-in center fund as of Oct. 1, 2017.

Justin Pitlik is working with the Three Lakes school district to have them set up an Ending The Silence program.

At this time we need a program for November.

The Xmas party will be Saturday December 9th. 11 am to 1 pm at First United Methodist Church. Skubal asked that people bring donated items to the drop-in center and he will pick them up. Board members can bring desserts.

Fiocchi will contact Keith Wolf, minister of the First United Methodist Church about speaking in November.

The meeting was adjourned at 7:41 pm.
